

Open Door Online Literary Magazine

Ever wanted to be a published writer?

The WKCTC Writers' Group is happy to announce that we will begin accepting submissions for the fall 2008 edition of Open Door Online, the WKCTC literary magazine. All WKCTC faculty, staff, and students are invited to submit original work for publication in this magazine.

Guidelines

- A. Work must be submitted in a Microsoft Word e-mail attachment. When submitting work, please include the genre this work is considered in the e-mail.
- B. Up to five items can be submitted for consideration.
- C. Submissions will be accepted until September 26, 2008 at 5 p.m. Send your submissions to kim.russell@kctcs.edu.
- D. By submitting work, the author claims ownership and originality of the submission.
- E. The following are accepted: short stories, essays, poetry, songs, or one-act plays.
 - I. Short stories and one-act plays must be 15 pages or less and be double spaced.
 - II. Essays must be 10 pages or less and double spaced.
 - III. Poetry and songs should be five pages or less.
- F. Please contact Kim Russell (kim.russell@kctcs.edu) with any questions.
- G. Work will be reviewed by select members of the WKCTC Writers' Group and its sponsors, and the fall 2008 edition will be published around October 10, 2008. Writers whose work is accepted will be notified by e-mail.

To view the Spring 2008 edition of Open Door Online, go to <http://wg.westkentucky.kctcs.edu/magazine/>