West Kentucky Community & Technical College

CAMPUS SAFETY WEEK

OCTOBER 17, 11AM-1PM - STUDENT CENTER

Information Tables - Come and learn more about domestic violence, sexual assault and other safety issues that impact students, faculty and staff both on and off-campus.

OCTOBER 17, 6:30 PM - ROSENTHAL 111

Malinda Baltz, Paducah Police Criminal Investigative Assistant, will present an informative discussion about how to be safe on campus. Malinda is a veteran criminal investigator with 25 years in law enforcement. Baltz has also served as a firefighter and an emergency medical technician. She currently serves our region as a criminal investigator for the Paducah Police Department.

OCTOBER 18, 11AM-1PM - STUDENT CENTER

Information Tables - Come and learn more about domestic violence, sexual assault and other safety issues that impact students, faculty and staff both on and off-campus.

OCTOBER 18, 6 PM - EMERGING TECHNOLOGY CENTER 109

"New Perspectives on Violence against Women and Children" - Did you know that one in every four women will experience domestic violence in her lifetime? Or that one in six women have experienced an attempted or completed rape? Or that more than five children die every day as a result of abuse or neglect? Alpha Epsilon Beta will be sponsoring a panel discussion about sexual assault, domestic violence and other crime and safety issues. Following the discussion, we will be having a candlelight "Take Back the Night" walk around campus.

OCTOBER 20, 5 PM - ANDERSON TECHNICAL BUILDING PARKING LOT

2nd Annual Take Back the Night 5K and Fun Run - Join us as a runner, a walker, or just a spectator as we take back the night and support ChildWatch! Door prizes and refreshments!
